Sudge Sanderson Holds That Beating and Fighting Are Synonymons-The Bank Will Probably Turn Over the $10,000 Check to Sharkey-Arguments of Connect

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 17 .- Glove contests and prize fights are synonymous. Such is the legal opinion of Judge Sanderson, and, in consequence, Thomas Sharkey will likely get the 10,000 that Fitzsimmons still believes rightfully belongs to him. When the matter came up this morning both sides announced that they had no more depositions to take, and Gen. Barnes, Sharkey's atterney, moved to dissolve the injunction re-straining the Angio-California Bank from cashing the check given to Sharkey in accordance with the decision of Referee Earp. Barnes said the complaint was defective, as it did not state sufficient facts, and was on information and belief stating general rumors. As a second point the agreement for the fight was for something :liegal, contrary to good morals and not entitled to the protection of the court. It had keen stated in court that there was a great difference between a prize fight and a glove contest. He read several decisions bearing on the point in support of his contention.

lie argued that the Sharkey-Fitzsimmons affair was a pugilistic encounter for a purse of $10,000 to go to the winner. The magnitude of the reward seemed to be very great. Fitzsimmons claimed he had been "jobbed;" that there had been a conspiracy to defraud him out of the prize money, and to do so the conspirators arganged for a referee who should give the de-

Fitzsimmons claimed that in the eighth round he had so discomfited his opponent that he was unable to continue the contest; despite which the referee corruptly decided against him. Counsel said the case should not be longer entertained by the Court. The evidence brought to the Court's attention during the taking of the depositions was enough to guide him.

When pugilists contest for a $10,000 purse, with a referee of their own selection, and escape prosecution for it, the civil arm of the law would not re-referee the contest for them. He therefore asked that the injunction be dis-

Attorney Friederich, in behalf of Fitzsimmons, argued that the Court could look to the complaint only, and pass on only the points pre-sented by counsel who had asked for the dissolution of the injunction. He hoped the Court would not go beyond this in considering the motion.

The complaint, he said, showed that on Oct.

10 Supervisors gave a permit for holding a The complaint, he said, showed that on Oct. 10 Supervisors gave a permit for holding a boxing contest to the National A. C. The affair was regularly licensed and held under the observation of the police, as provided by law. The atorney referred to the act of the Legislature of 1893, in which a prize fight was stated to be a contest, with or without gloves, where the contestants beat and maimed each other. Opposing counsel, he said, would have the Court believe the Supervisors had granted a permit for the commission of a felony by the principals in the contest.

A kansas court had held that a prize fight was a physical contest for a prize or reward. The Supreme Court had held that this definition was not a good one and referred to Webter, whose definition is that a prize fight is a contest in which the combatants fight for a reward. There would have to be a fight and an attempt by the combatants to injure each other. Counsel held the compaint did not furnish the court with grounds for determining the question of fact as to the contest. All the facts about the license and apparent legality of the contest indicated that it was not a prize fight.

In rendering his decision Judge Sanderson said it was the first time the case had been presented to the court, as the former proceedings were to take depositions. The complaint stated that the permit was for a boxing contest. A glance at the dictionary would show the gentlemen that buying and fighting were synonymous words, if the men were boxing they were fighting. It was elementary law, and if the complaint was true, the principals might be indicted, and those who witnessed it were liable to arrest for misdemanor.

The Supervisors, he said, had no more right to Kansas court had beld that a prize fight who witnessed it were hable to arrest an ademeator.

The Supervisors, he said, had no more right to themse a boxing contest than they had to license a duel. In permitting the contest the law officers had winked at a violation of the law. The injunction, he said, would have been dissolved on the heels of an issuance had it been asked for. The court ordered the injunction dissolved and the complaint stricken from the files of the court.

After the court adjourned Judge Sanderson unded Gen. Barnes a letter. It was from New ork, and was addressed to "Thomas Sharkey, ure of Judge Sanderson".

York, and was addressed to "Thomas Sharkey, care of Judge Sanderson,"

The $10,000 check is still in the possession of the bank, where it will remain until all doubt as to who owns it has been removed. Manager Lilienthal said he would not pay the money over until advised to do so by his attorneys. Unless some other impediment should present itself the money will probably change hands to morrow.

AMATEURS IN THE RING. Final Bouts of the Bohemian-Pastime

Show. The finals of the joint amateur boxing sho of the Bohemian and Pastime A. C.'s, which was held last night in the rooms of the former club, were exciting. While many of the ama teurs were not overburdened with knowledge of the manly art, there were many who knew how to punch and box cleverly. The bouts were still in progress at midnight.

In the 110-pound class H. Corcoran put up a great fight against J. O'Malley. These lads went at it from the start, and at last dropped went at it from the start, and at last dropped their hands from sheer exhaustion. Corcoran fild most of the clean hitting and won.

The "go" between F. Grundy and J. Vance in the 140-pound class was a bot one. In the third round Vance dropped Grundy twice with right handers, and Grundy took his time to get up. The latter, however, was clearly the better man and won.

J. O'Brien and F. Tims furnished the best sport of the night among the 125-pounders. This contest was hard fought from the start. Bummaries follow:

NEW YORK AND PENNSYLVANIA. Potter for President of the L. A. W. and Collins for Vice-President Are Talked Of-The Good Roads Association of Brooklyn Will Ask for Improvements. The unsettled condition of I. A. W. politics regarding the Presidency has resulted in the suggestion of the name of A. C. Willison of Cumberland, Md., as a likely candidate. The Marylander served a term as President, and was defeated last February for re-election by Sterling Elliott. A feeling prevails throughout the various divisions of the league that in the event of I. B. Potter positively declining to accept the office a strong candidate must be held in reserve to defeat Elliott. Cressy Morrison of Milwaukee and C. F. Cossum of Poughkeepsle the present Vice-Presidents, are also talked of for the office. It was announced yesterday that the members of the New York State division are using their influence to induce Pennsylvanians to select a man to run as Vice-President on a ticket with Potter. P. S. Collins, the Secretary-Treasurer of the Pennsylvania division, is talked of as a likely man for the position. Such a plan would result in throwing the voting strength of the two strongest divisions in the league for Potter.

The new committee of the Good Roads Association of Brooklyn, consisting of H. B. Fullerton, F. M. Monroe, F. Vail, W. T. Cowenhoven, C. W. Greene, W. T. Wintringham, and F. P. Share, intend to do some hustling for the benefit of bicycle riders. Application will be made to Park Commissioner Dattmer to have a shelter house built at the Coney Island end of the cycle path, as the present building used for that purpose is inadequate. A request will also be made to have a shelter house built on the shore of Dyker Mendow Park. It is intended to ask the City Works Department to have the crosswalks at Atlantic and South Portland avenues, Franklin avenue and Eastern Parkway, and Jefferson and Tompkins avenues paved with asphalt.

The Century Wheelmen have decided to secure a summer club house. The officers find that while the club runs during the riding season are well attended, it is expected that a greater number of members would be brought together on holidays if headquarters were within convenient riding distance of the city. Several locations have been considered, among them being Staten Island, Bay Ridge, Bath Beach, Sheepshead Bay, and Pelham Manor. It is expected that at the January meeting of the organization some action will be taken looking toward the selection of a suitable house.

TROLLEY CAR RUNS DOWN TRUCK The Driver and One of the Horses Injured and the Truck Wrecked.

trolley railway ran into a furniture wagon belonging to Ludwig Baumann & Co. of Third avenue and 121st street, at 126th street last night. of the Cromwell line reached the Passes at The car came rapidly up the avenue without any ringing of its gong. It struck one of the wise race over El Norte of the Morgan line between New York and New Orleans, but not breaking the record. The three coasters, Kansas City of the Savannah line, El Norte of the Morgan line, and the Creole, the brand new vessel of the Cromwell line, left New York at the same hour. The trio passed Sandy Hook on Saturday afternoon last in this order: Kansas City 4:55, El Norte 5:10, Creole 5:20.

The three vessels kept close together until Savannah was reached, when the Kansas City was ten minutes ahead of the Creole and the latter two minutes ahead of El Norte, which she had passed. The Creole reached the Passes at 4:22 this morning, making the passage (1,820 miles) in 4 days, 10 hours, and 50 minutes, or at the rate of seventeen miles an hour for the entire distance. El Norte, however, still holds the chambionship, having made the trip has Nevember in 4 days, 4 hours, and 56 minutes. When the Creole reached the wharf this afternoon she was saluted with whistles by all the vessels. horses and threw both down. The tongue of the wagon and the front truck were broken, and Arnold Folg, the driver, was thrown off his seat to the street and bruised. A deep gash was cut in the leg of one of the horses.

The front platform of the car was damaged. The broken truck and injured horses blocked cars on up and down town tracks for several minutes.
